ABOUT TRANS' ART INTERNATIONAL

Founded in Paris, France, Trans' Art International, a subsidiary company of Chengdu Nongyuan, has been in charge of Nongyuan's overseas projects. Nongyuan's International Artist Residency Program had been officially launched in 2008 and since then, has focused on strengthening exchanges and visits among artists, art institutions, designers, art students and other art amateurs from different countries and regions, providing them with interactive platforms and opportunities to understand different cultural heritages. Besides, based on rich Bashu Culture and other unique traditional Chengdu cultures, it also promotes the interactions and cooperation between artists and art institutions as well as the development of culture and art industry through the localized creation, exchange and exhibition during residency.

INTRODUCTION 1

Trans' Art International has established partnerships with 12 universities and colleges in Sichuan Province to import and export art talents and offer both participators of this program and students chances to make exchanges and cooperation. As an exhibition brand of Nongyuan, the "Image and Imagination"—the Chinese and foreign artists exchange exhibition has been successfully held in 40 countries, since its foundation in 2012. With over 100 activities like international exhibitions, forums and academic salons, it tries to offer the artists who participated in Nongyuan residency program an opportunity to go aboard and to expand their international influence.

ATTRACTIONS

CHENGDU

Wuhou Temple

(Memorial Temple of Marquis Wu)

Wuhou Temple, also known as Memorial Temple of Marquis Wu, is dedicated to Zhuge Liang, the Marquis Wu (Wuhou) of Kingdom of Shu in the Three Kingdoms Period (220 - 280).

Jin Li Street

Chengdu is a city brimming with a strong leisurely ambience with Jinli Street as the typical representative. The street is located to the east of the Wuhou Temple of Chengdu (the most famous Three Kingdoms period (220 - 280) relic museum in China).

Chunxi Road

If one travels to Chengdu for the first time, Chunxi Road Pedestrian Street is a place that should not be missed. Located in Jinjiang District, this road in a broad sense covers an area of about 200,000 square meters. It is now not only the center of fashion in Chengdu, but also a place that brings together delicious snacks from all over the country.

TRAVEL GUIDE 6

Tianfu Square

Tianfu Square, the symbol of Chengdu, is located in the city center. Being the largest city square in southwest China, it enjoys similar position and fame in Sichuan as Tiananmen Square in Beijing. With an area of 88,368 square meters (105,687 square yards), the square is a special sight encircled by skyscrapers. It is said that one who fails to visit Tianfu Square doesn't even visit Chengdu.

Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding

Located just 10 km (6 miles) away from downtown, the Chengdu Research Base of Giant Panda Breeding has been created and imitated the natural habitat of giant pandas in order that they might have the best possible environment for rearing and breeding.
